COMMUNITY PRAYER REQUESTS #1 - LAW ENFORCEMENT & FIRE DEPARTMENTS

Orange County Sheriff Don Barnes' office:

1. Pray for all the law enforcement officers as they perform their duties to protecting our communities.
2. Pray that we can continue to work collaboratively & as a team with those we serve.
3. Pray for peace & understanding, for calm & reflection in the face of adversity.

Orange Chief of Police Dan Adams' office:

1. Pray for the safety of our police officers as they protect our community 24/7/365.
2. Pray for peace in our community.
3. Pray for loved ones, spouses, families, etc. of police officers as the profession continues to be under daily scrutiny. That scrutiny impacts and affects them all.

Orange Fire Department Chief Sean deMetropolis' office:

1. Pray for our members who do not have a faith foundation in God
2. Pray for the men and women and families of the Orange City Fire Dept. For their safety. For their relationships that can become strained due to the demanding schedules. Pray for the children who endure the unconventional schedule(s) of their parent(s).
3. Pray for the overall operational safety – that we do our job in the most efficient and safe manner.
4. Pray for compassion for our community; and for softened hearts in the homeless community.

Orange County District Attorney Todd Spitzer's office:

1. Protect our law enforcement officers from being violently targeted.
2. Give us wisdom to pursue justice every day in the court rooms and board rooms.
3. Give us strength to endure the ongoing violence and crimes we fight, so that we may be whole and fully present to our family and friends.

COMMUNITY PRAYER REQUESTS

#2 - CIVIC & LOCAL GOVERNMENT LEADERS

Orange Mayor Mark Murphy's office:

1. Pray for wisdom for our public servants in leading our community.
2. Pray for safety on our streets, freedom from violence, and justice to prevail.
3. As we emerge from the pandemic, pray for the strength to rebuild our faith, families, and community.
4. Pray for revitalization in our economy, the upswing of new business, and increase in opportunities for employment.

Orange Congressman J. Luis Correa, 46th District:

1. We pray for the collaboration and wise decisions of our elected officials and administrators to address the infrastructure needs of our district as it relates to water, transportation, and energy.
2. We pray for our teachers and professors who dedicate their lives to helping to ensure the higher education and career goals of our students.
3. We pray for our courageous troops all over the world. May God give our troops strength and success in their battles abroad and provide them with a safe return to their beloved families.

Orange Assemblyman Steven Choi, 68th District

1. Pray for the hard-working people of Orange County who seek a good educational opportunities, a good job, & quality housing for themselves & their families.
2. Pray for our Educational system, our teachers, students and parents. Education that transforms lives, affords greater opportunities, and improves the quality and capabilities of the local community and beyond to grow and thrive.
3. Pray for our Homeless population. That there are social services made available to meet the needs of this marginalized sector of our community, providing a hand up. That these citizens are treated with respect and dignity as they seek basic needs as well as restoration of their lives.
